About the Awards

The Prime Minister’s National Veteran Employment Awards (the Awards) recognise the achievements of Australian organisations that make significant contributions to the employment of veterans and Australian Defence Force (ADF) partners, as well as celebrating individual veterans and partners who are succeeding as employees and entrepreneurs.

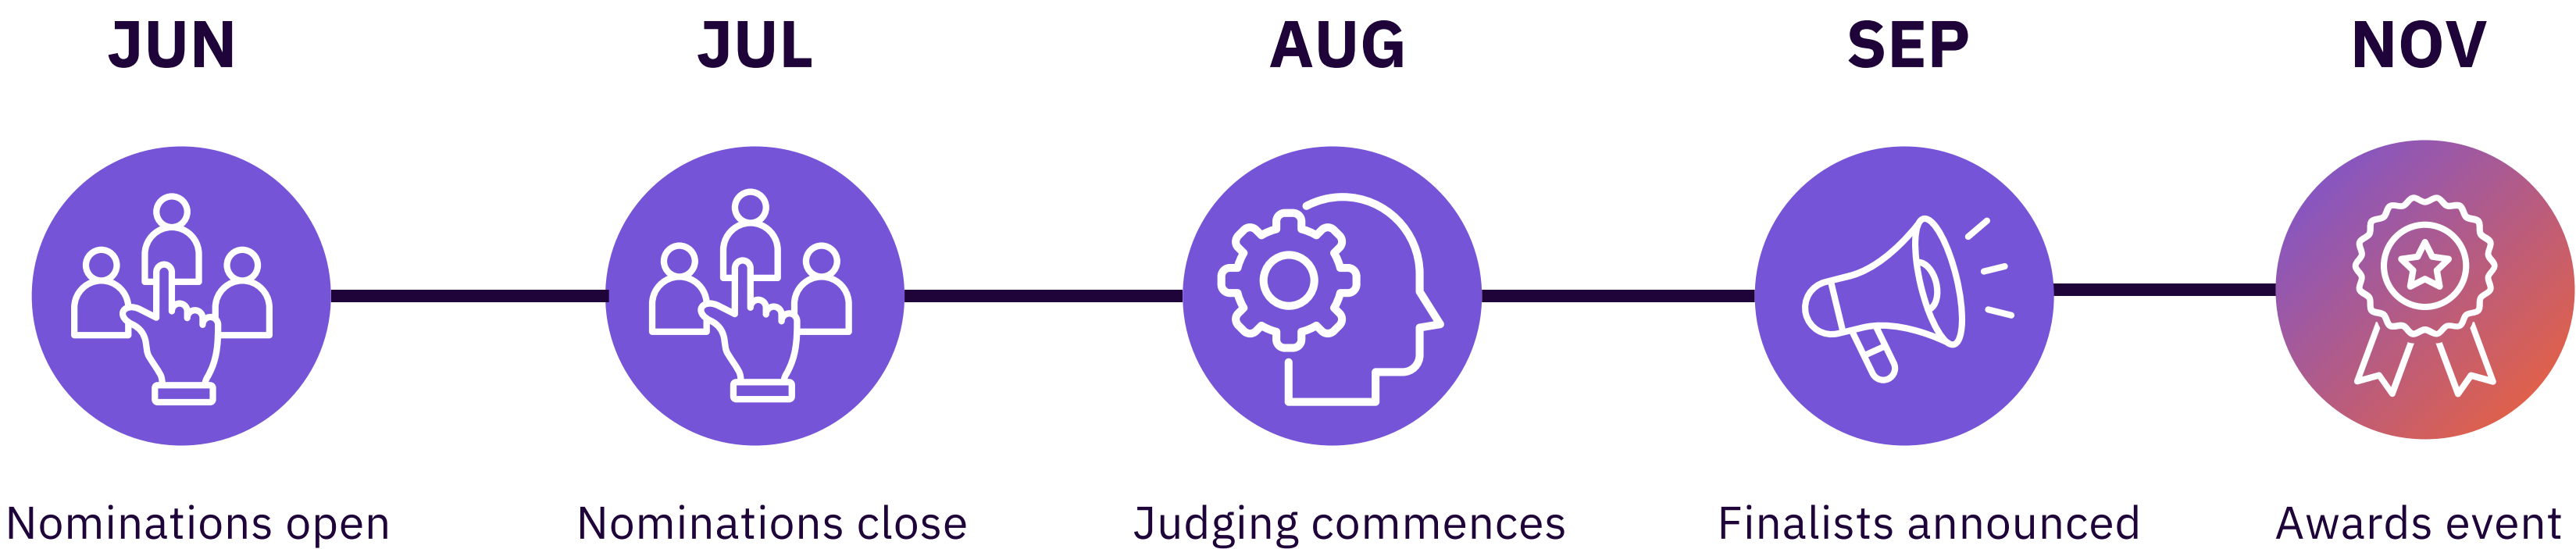

The Awards, an initiative of the Australian Government’s Veteran Employment Program, provide a valuable opportunity celebrate contemporary, industry-leading practices and promote the skills veterans and partners bring to the civilian workforce across a range of industries and locations.

The 2025 Awards theme is ‘Celebrating our growing community’ where we will not only celebrate the achievements of veterans, partners and employers, but also highlight the collective impact of the veteran employment community – inspiring continued engagement and leadership across Australia.

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I apply to sponsor the Awards? - Express your interest by completing the online EOI form by 25 July 2025.

How many sponsorship packages are available? - The number of sponsorship packages available for each category may be limited based on DVA's preferences for the event. The number of gold sponsors will be capped at the number of awards categories.

Will my expression of interest be accepted? - There is no guarantee that you will be offered a sponsorship package. Expressions of interests will generally be considered as they are received by DVA, and sponsorship packages may be allocated before the closing date. At any time, DVA may request you provide more information to DVA and DVA may undertake its own due diligence, including but not limited to a Fair Work Ombudsman compliance history search. Only successful applicants will be notified. DVA may withdraw any sponsorship offer at any time.

DVA will allocate sponsorship packages in its absolute discretion. DVA may consider a range of factors as it sees fit, which may include:

- what other expressions of interest have been received and sponsorship packages have been allocated
- consistency with government policy, such as conflicts of interest and compliance with laws, and
- the appropriateness of a sponsorship arrangement, including the alignment with the Veteran Employment Program

How will I know if my expression of interest has been accepted? You will receive written advice confirming your level of sponsorship and a Sponsorship Agreement for signature. The tax invoice for the total amount will follow.

What does 'proudly support' mean? - Gold sponsors will be acknowledged as 'proudly supporting' an Award category. Gold sponsors may be offered the opportunity to select the Award category however the final decision will rest with DVA. A sponsor will not be offered to support any Award for which they are a nominee. The opportunity will be provided in order of EOI submission date with preference given to organisations who have joined the Veteran Employment Commitment.

When do I need to supply my logo or other materials? - The deadlines and specifications for supply of the sponsor's logo and other material will be specified in the Sponsorship Agreement. Some are time-dependant.

About the Veteran Employment Program

The Australian Government's Veteran Employment Program (VEP) delivers initiatives that support Australian organisations to improve employment outcomes for Australian Defence Force veterans.

The VEP’s primary objectives are:

- Promoting the skills veterans bring to the civilian workforce to increase employment opportunities for veterans and partners
- Encouraging and supporting employers to recruit and retain veterans and to build veteran-inclusive environments, and;
- Delivering targeted programs and resources to support the collective efforts of the veteran employment community.

Along with the Prime Ministers National Employment Awards, the VEP delivers a range of initiatives including The Veteran Employment Commitment, advice and resources for employers, veterans and partners, plus grants and projects to deliver veteran employment outcomes.

The VEP engages with a wide network through a variety of channels outlined below:

	52,000 Facebook		3,840 DVA YouTube
	4,188 LinkedIn (VEP)		1,680 DVA TV YouTube
	13,768 DVA LinkedIn		108,000 Vetaffairs (online recipients)
	1,181 Instagram		201,000 Vetaffairs hardcopy recipients
	19,000 DVA e-News
